Position

Deputy Head of Junior and Middle Schools

To Commence

Term 1, 2022

The role

We are experiencing a period of strong growth, driven by increasing student enrolments and the passion of our College Council, Executive and staff to make SCOTS PGC a great place to learn and work.

We are seeking to appoint a passionate educator for this newly created role that will assist in leading the teaching, learning, pastoral care and wellbeing programs within our Junior School (Prep-Year 5) and Middle School (Years 6-8).

The successful candidate will support the Head of Junior and Middle Schools by overseeing the daily operations of the sub-schools and by leading specific programs and projects. They will also work closely with classroom teachers and support staff to achieve the best outcomes for our students.

To be successful in the role you will need to

1. Have a passion for education and for working with young people.
2. Be able to create strong, positive relationships with students, parents and colleagues. You will need to be able to connect with students from a diverse range of backgrounds, including regional, rural, remote and indigenous.
3. Have a depth of knowledge and experience to lead and model best practice teaching and learning in a primary school context.
4. Have well developed communication skills that will enable you to effectively communicate with a diverse range of stakeholders.
5. Have highly developed organisational skills.
6. Be open to growing and developing as an educator and as a leader.
7. Have the ability to be registered to teach in Queensland.
8. Be aligned with the philosophy, vision and values of the College, including the holistic nature of education in a regional independent boarding school.

This is a full-time position of added responsibility to commence in early 2022. The position carries a 0.5 teaching load.

The College

We are a co-educational day and boarding school in a beautiful rural setting on the outskirts of the city of Warwick, about two hours from the state capital, Brisbane.

With a student population from Prep to Year 12, we offer a uniquely personalised education where both breadth and balance are features of our program.

An integral element of College life is our emphasis on character development. We want our students to challenge themselves to reach their full potential. Therefore, it is no wonder that people often say - this is the school where country values inspire excellence!

Our vision

To inspire students to be their best.

Our values

We affirm five values that underpin all that we seek to achieve for the students of SCOTS PGC;

- Spirit
- Tenacity
- Authenticity
- Excellence
- Respect
